

June 16, 2011

June 16, 2011

Travel & Hotels

Win a South Street Seaport staycation!

The Seaport isn't just for tourists: A growing cluster of nonchain businesses and the Seaport Music Festival are drawing New Yorkers, too. One lucky reader will experience the area's appeal with dinner for two at Pier 17's Harbour Lights restaurant, overlooking the Brooklyn Bridge, and an overnight stay in a sleek, loft-style king room at the nearby Andaz Wall Street. Further staycation perks include two free Water Taxi day passes and a selection of essential summertime gear (sunglasses, flip-flops, swimwear and a T-shirt) from the Seaport's newest tenant, British streetwear brand Superdry.